Call for JRN Editorial Board Members

The Association for Radiologic & Imaging Nursing (ARIN) is seeking editorial board members for the Journal of Radiology Nursing (JRN). Editorial Board members are appointed to an initial 1-year term; terms are renewable if performance is satisfactory. Editorial board members report to the editor of JRN.

Duties include:

- Reviewing manuscripts for relevance, accuracy and content and sending recommendations to the editor
- Promoting JRN to nurses, other health care providers, and the public community
- Mentoring novice authors
- Writing a manuscript(s) or book review(s)
- Proactively recruiting authors
- Attending the annual editorial board meeting, either in person/by conference call
- Carrying out special duties as requested by the editor

Editorial board members must meet the following qualifications:

- Registered professional nurse or other professional (e.g., radiologist, technologist, physicist, pharmacist, administrator, attorney, anesthesiologist)
- Experience in radiological education, practice, advocacy, administration, or research sufficient to develop expertise (exception: applicants from other disciplines)
- Prior editorial board membership is beneficial
- Documented writing ability as evidenced by publication in a peer-reviewed journal or book
- ARIN membership for a minimum of 1 year (exception: applicants from other disciplines)

If you are interested in an appointment to the JRN editorial board, submit a current curriculum vitae and letter of interest to Journal of Radiology Nursing Editor Kathleen A. Gross, MSN, BS, RN-BC, CRN, through the ARIN National Office c/o Liz Boulter (liz.boulter@arinursing.org) no later than October 25, 2019. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Appointments will be made in late December 2019; term will start January 1, 2020.
