Department of Emergency Medicine Yale University School of Medicine

Advancing the Science and Practice of Emergency Medicine

The Department of Emergency Medicine at the Yale University School of Medicine seeks to fill the position of Assistant / Associate Residency Program Director. The Department has a fully accredited four-year residency hosting 60 residents at two teaching hospitals, including the Level One Trauma Center at Yale-New Haven Hospital, which treats 100,000 patients annually. Our didactic curriculum makes extensive use of small-group discussions, audience response technologies, e-learning, simulation, and Areas of Concentration Program. The successful candidate will be expected to help lead the residency under the direction of the Residency Program Director and to perform scholarly activity to advance the science and practice of Emergency Medicine.

The Department has a total of 4 clinical sites: Adult Emergency Services at York Street Campus; Shoreline Medical Center; Saint Raphael's Campus; and the West Haven VA Emergency Department with a combined ED volume of 195,000 visits per year. We offer an extensive faculty development program for junior and senior faculty. We have a well-established track record of interdisciplinary collaboration with other renowned faculty, obtaining federal and private foundation funding, and a mature research infrastructure supported by a faculty Research Director, a staff of research associates and administrative assistants.

Eligible candidates must be residency-trained and board-certified in emergency medicine, and eligible for appointment at the Assistant Professor level or above. At least 3 years of experience in resident education, is required. Rank, protected time and salary will be commensurate with education, training and experience.

Yale University is a world-class institution providing a wide array of benefits and research opportunities.

To apply, please visit: <https://apply.interfolio.com/59261> to upload your CV and cover letter. Specific inquiries about the position may be sent to the Chair: Gail D'Onofrio, MD, MS, via email: jamie.petrone@yale.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Yale University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Yale values diversity among its students, staff, and faculty and strongly welcomes applications from women, persons with disabilities, protected veterans, and underrepresented minorities.
