Vice Chair of Research

Rutgers, Robert Wood Johnson Medical School Department of Emergency Medicine

Rutgers is New Jersey's premiere public research university. With a $1 billion commitment to invest in, support and drive groundbreaking, advanced research, the recent Rutgers and RWJ Barnabas Health integrated academic health system aims to further the university's reputation as a leader in academic health care and biomedical research.

Rutgers currently is ranked among the nation's top 20 public universities for research and development expenditures. Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School is first in the state for research and has steadily attracted increased NIH funding and grants in excess of $1 million, as well as substantially expanded its clinical trials with the launch of a new, world-class adult clinical research center.

The Department of Emergency Medicine is seeking a Vice Chair of Research at the Associate Professor or Professor level, preferably tenure track. The Department's goal is to grow its research and scholarly output while building a nationally recognized research program. The Vice Chair will provide leadership and oversight of the research mission for the Department. Successful candidates will have a demonstrated track record of independently funded research, publication in high-impact, peer-reviewed journals, strong mentorship skills and clear evidence of promoting the academic careers of junior faculty. The Vice Chair must demonstrate expertise in leading research in EM and possess the interpersonal skills to engage, inspire and work across disciplines within a large, diverse organization.

University of Vermont
MEDICAL CENTER

ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
EMERGENCY PHYSICIAN - CVPH

The Division of Emergency Medicine at The Larner College of Medicine at The University of Vermont is seeking an Emergency Physician desiring to pursue a career in academic emergency medicine. Appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor (Clinical Scholar Pathway) will be commensurate with years of experience and accomplishments. This position would be located at the Champlain Valley Physicians Hospital (CVPH) in Plattsburgh, New York.

CVPH is a progressive medical center with nine state-of-the-art OR's and Ambulatory Surgery Center. The position entails providing Emergency Medicine services to the patient population served by CVPH, a community medical center which is a regional referral hospital partnered with the University of Vermont Medical Center. This position offers the unique opportunity to work in a community setting while having an active affiliation with Vermont's only Academic Medical Center; the only ACS verified Level 1 trauma center in the state providing tertiary care to patients from Vermont and Northern NY.

Plattsburgh is located on the shores of Lake Champlain, near the Adirondack Mountains, Olympic-Lake Placid region, Montreal and Burlington, VT.

The University of Vermont Medical Center is the teaching hospital of The Larner College of Medicine at The University of Vermont. It is an ACS verified Level 1 Trauma Center for both adult and pediatric patients, and a major tertiary referral center for the state of Vermont and upstate New York. With an annual census of 60,000 patients, the emergency department is known for high quality patient care and dedicated teaching faculty.

Applicants must be board certified or board eligible by the American Board of Emergency Medicine (ABEM) and eligible for licensure in the State of New York and Vermont. Although all interested candidates are encouraged to apply, strong preference will be given to candidates with experience in the teaching, clinical, and research activities of academic emergency medicine. This is a full-time, 12 month, salaried position with attending staff privileges at The University of Vermont Medical Center & Champlain Valley Physicians Hospital.

The University is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and/or service. Applicants are requested to include in their cover letter information about how they will further this goal.

The University of Vermont is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other category legally protected by federal or state law. The University encourages applications from all individuals who will contribute to the diversity and excellence of the institution.

Interested individuals should apply online at
