

Acknowledgments for AJPM Volumes 54 and 55

Peer reviewers are essential to maintaining the excellence and prestige of the American Journal of Preventive Medicine. While the input of all reviewers is important, the individuals listed below were specifically identified by editorial leadership for their outstanding peer review efforts in 2018. AJPM wishes to thank and congratulate the following dedicated and conscientious reviewers who are the 2018 recipients of this recognition. A full listing of 2018 AJPM reviewers is available on our website.
