An error appeared in the article “Estimating the Frequency, Severity, and Clustering of SPADE Symptoms in Chronic Painful Chemotherapy-Induced Peripheral Neuropathy,” published in the August 2018 issue. The Results and Conclusions section of the abstract on page 354 should read, “Participants ($n = 59$) experienced numerous SPADE symptoms. 66.1% of participants experienced at least two SPADE symptoms concurrently.”

The authors apologize for any inconvenience caused.
