

ISPN 2019

CHARLOTTE, NC • The Queen City • MAY 29-JUNE 1

The International Society of Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurses' 2019 Annual Conference is being held at the Charlotte Marriott City Center Hotel, Charlotte, NC, from May 29-June 1, 2019. The conference theme is "Critical Conversations with Psychiatric Nurses: Preparing for the Next Decade."

Given this theme, ISPN would like to encourage PMHNs in the early stages of their careers and graduate students (many of whom will become advanced practice PMHNs/DNPs within the next decade) to consider attending our conference. Faculty and undergraduate students interested in mental health are welcome, too. Delegate numbers are usually around 200, which makes our conference much less impersonal than larger conferences and an ideal opportunity to network with leading PMHN educators, researchers, and practitioners from North America and elsewhere in the world.

25th International Mental Health Nursing Research Conference

From Global to Local: Mental Health in a Connected World

Conference
fee from just £300
inc VAT

Join us at this premier international conference as we explore developments in mental health nursing research, education and practice. Discover how nurse-led initiatives are influencing the global mental health agenda and improving quality of life for people living with mental health difficulties.

This two day conference provides an opportunity to:

- share your research, critical thinking, practice development or education initiative with an international audience
- hear from renowned keynote speakers, leading researchers with practitioner and service user backgrounds, and both practice and education developers
- network with like-minded colleagues, including those starting out in their careers through to experts in the field
- engage in constructive, debate amongst an inclusive, supportive audience and discuss the evidence that is transforming mental health practice at local, national and international levels
- contribute to your professional development and revalidation requirements.

Students in partnership

The RCN is offering two discretionary funded places at this conference to eligible pre-registration students who submit an abstract that is accepted for presentation. Each student will be support to attend the day they are presenting. For further information and details of eligibility visit www.rcn.org.uk/mhnr19

Submit your abstract

We invite abstracts for concurrent sessions, symposia, workshops and posters, associated with one or more of the following concurrent themes:

- Promoting mental health, preventing mental illness
- Capability, capacity and creativity
- Rights-based approaches to mental health

Abstracts should be submitted online at www.rcn.org.uk/mhnr19 by 22 April 2019
