2018 Acknowledgement of reviewers

The Editorial Team would like to extend their warmest thanks to all the referees who have kindly given of their time and expertise in reviewing the wide variety of articles submitted to The Journal of Hospital Infection over the last year. The following referees have provided at least one review during 2018. Without their support, there could be no JHI. We look forward to receiving their comments on future submitted papers.

We encourage any readers who are not already reviewers to consider registering as a reviewer at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/jhi>

We have recently updated our reviewer guidelines. For any information on reviewing for the journal please visit <https://www.his.org.uk/journal/advice-reviewers/>
