“Vital signs changes during different dental procedures: A prospective longitudinal crossover clinical trial” [Oral Surg Oral Med Oral Pathol Oral Radiol 128 (2019): 96]

The following sentence:

Finally, there is no lack of information on whether anxiety was measured, whether patients experienced discomfort during the procedure, whether anxiety or discomfort was associated with tachycardia, and whether the procedures were delivered to patients in the recumbent or upright position.<sup>8,9</sup>

Should have read:

Finally, there is a lack of information on whether anxiety was measured, whether patients experienced discomfort during the procedure, whether anxiety or discomfort was associated with tachycardia, and whether the procedures were delivered to patients in the recumbent or upright position.<sup>8,9</sup>
