Schedule an AAEM Residency Visit!

Residents entering into the emergency medicine workforce need to be aware of the business of emergency medicine and a variety of other key clinical and practice management issues.

AAEM offers nationally recognized leaders in emergency medicine that will speak about these key topics not often addressed in residency – free of charge for your program.

What residents are saying...

"Great speaker who opened my eyes to a significant problem facing emergency physicians as well as the ways AAEM is working to fix the problem."

What program directors are saying...

"Thank you, AAEM, for an excellent visit. The lectures were very high-yield. We sincerely appreciate the investment you made in our program."
